Dress Up and Solve a Medieval Mystery with “Calamity at Camelot” at Kentlands Mansion

Gaithersburg, MD – (June 14, 2019) Arts on the Green and A Taste for Murder Productions present “Calamity at Camelot,” an audience participation murder mystery riddled with clues and a buffet of scandalous sweet treats. Performances are Friday, July 26 and Saturday, July 27 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, July 28 at 2 p.m. in the beautiful Kentlands Mansion side garden, weather permitting. This event is appropriate for those 15 and older. Tickets are $35 per person, $60 per couple, and include a dessert buffet and non-alcoholic beverages. A cash bar will be available for those 21 and older. Photo ID required for alcohol sales. Dress in medieval attire for a chance to win a prize.

It’s the merry month of May in Camelot and murder is in the air. Old King Pellinore has been found dead beside the lake. Several legendary characters are suspects, including King Arthur, Queen Guinevere, Sir Lancelot, Mordred, Morgan le Fay, and even The Lady of Lake. Was Pelly drowned, poisoned or stabbed, and by whom?

Murder at the Mansion Dessert Theater features the talents of A Taste for Murder Productions, provider of professional interactive mystery theater performances throughout the DC metropolitan area. Artistic Director and Founder Laura W. Andruski is a trained theater professional with more than 20 years of experience performing for live audiences. The repertory company features the very best local and regional actors.

Kentlands Mansion is located at 320 Kent Square Road in Gaithersburg. Seating is limited and early reservation is recommended. Parking is free. Purchase tickets online here. For more information, visit www.gaithersburgmd.gov.
